

August 29 – September 2, 2016

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
20 mins reading at home	Title: _____ _____ Parent Signature: _____ _____	Title: _____ _____ Parent Signature: _____ _____	Title: _____ _____ Parent Signature: _____ _____	Title: _____ _____ Parent Signature: _____ _____
Reading		MAP Testing today... no homework!	This week we learned about inferring. Inferring is using clues from the text to figure something out about a character or part of the story. Use the picture below to make 3 inferences.  I infer that.... I infer that... I infer that...
Writing	Today we read about writing about the small things in life. Why is it important to write about personal experiences?	MAP Testing today... no homework!
Social Studies	Today we talked about why history is important, and how everyone has one. Ask one of your family members or friends about their history. Include things like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -their earliest memory -a memory playing with their friends -one time they got in trouble -a time they had a lot of fun -another memory they really like sharing Write your answers on the back of this paper.	MAP Testing today... no homework!	On the map below, COLOR... South Carolina – green Georgia – red North Carolina – orange Atlantic Ocean – blue

Use the back of the paper if you need more room. Homework is due on Fridays. Check website for more information!